ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS.

HAVAS AGENCY

Constantinople, 14th.

The Turkish Delegate in the Conference proposed, to arrange the present conflict in Roumelia, that a provisional Governor and a European Commission be sent there, to study "de visu" the situation and find out the exact feeling of the masses, with the object of giving them a local Government, a viceroy of the Sublime Porte, or if they prefer it allow them to join with Bulgaria. Most of the Delegates are favourably inclined towards the proposal.

Vienna, 13th.

The Servian Government has declared war against Bulgaria. Hostilities have already commenced, and severe fighting may be expected soon.

London, 14th.

Telegrams from Calcutta and Rangoon announce that the Anglo-Indian Army is advancing rapidly on Mandalay, capital of Burmah.

Paris, 14th.

Vienna, 15th.

The Servian troops have crossed the Bulgarian frontier and taken possession of the most strategic positions; according to telegrams, from a Servian source, the Bulgarians were beaten when retiring.

St. Petersburg 15th.

The leading Russian newspapers criticize in a most severe and hostile manner the action of the English Government in declaring war against Burmah; and also allege that Great Britain is the indirect cause of the Bulgarian Roumelian difficulty, in backing up Prince of Bulgaria as a foil to Russian policy.

PRESS TELEGRAMS

Rangoon 13th—Advices from Mandalay state the Birmans have seized a steamer which had been sent for the purpose of taking away the foreign residents of that city.

The English forces, under the command of General Prendergast, will cross the Burmaese frontier on Sunday.

At the present a flotilla has been organized, comprising 45 steamers, barques, and floating batteries.

The steamers are well armed, and cannons of heavy calibre, for bombarding purposes, have been mounted on deck. The forces consist of 10,000 men, 7,000 attendants, servants etc. 500 mules, and two batteries mounted on elephants.

The Burmaese army is 10,000 strong, but can be considerably increased by the addition of irregular troops.

Rangoon 14th—The British authorities have issued a proclamation assuring the Burmaese that their rights, occupations and religion will not be interfered with as long as they respect the English.

General Prendergast has arrived at Haytengo.

Sophia 14th—At Tru, on the frontier, a slight engagement took place between Servians and Bulgarians. Eight Servians and one Bulgarian were killed.

London 14th—The Servian Government have notified Rangase, the present Bulgarian representative, that in view of the unjustifiable attacks of the Bulgarians, they have decided to declare war against Bulgaria.

The Russian Government has suspended the annual subscription of 150,000 roubles granted to Prince Alexander.

Berlin 13th—Mr. Pendleton, American Minister, has formally protested against the expulsion of the five German-Americans from Prussia.

New York 14th—A special telegram from Washington states that no details have been received in official quarters with reference to the expulsion of the five German-Americans from Prussia.

Secretary Bayard states that Mr. Pendleton has received instructions to make note of all expulsions of American citizens and immediately apprise his Government.

London 14th—The United States Government have asked Spain and Germany to protect the American mission in the Carolines.

San Francisco 16th—The death is announced of Ex-Senator William L Karon.

Ottawa 13th—Mr. Coursol, member for East Montreal, arrived yesterday and has intervewed all the Ministers with a view to the commutation of Riel's sentence. M. Coursol states that of this there is not much hope.

Quebec 13th—The short term of postponement of Riel's execution leaves little hope of the sentence being commuted. The French papers confess their conviction that Riel will be hanged on Monday.

Galveston. 4th—Yesterday a terrible calamity visited this city. A fire broke out near the bay, and, fed by a strong wind, soon assumed the dimensions of an immense conflagration. The flames extended from the bay to the island, destroying some of the most sumptuous residences. Forty blocks were reduced to ashes, and 2,500 people are left without homes. The wind was blowing from the N.W., at the rate of 30 miles per hour, and its violence only rendered more, heartrending the shrieks of terror from the women, the screams of agony from the children, and the hoarse shouts of the men, as all fled before the approaching flames. The fire originated between 16 and 17 streets. The flames stopped at 16 towards the East and 21 towards the West. The losses of the insurance companies are estimated at $1,148,000.

Concordia 16th—General Enrique Castro is much better and will be able to leave his room in a few days.

The Juarista demonstration took place in San Lorenzo yesterday without any enthusiasm on the part of the people.

Camp advices spread some alarm in consequence of the losses, which are certain to reduce our linseed crop this year.

Montevideo 16th—General Santos, it is announced, leaves to-day in the General Rebeirafor Maldonado.

A building society has been organized to erect a hotel and bathing houses on the Playa Ramirez.

The Equateur sailed yesterday.

THE MENDOZA PRIZES.

The distribution of prizes to exhibitors of the Mendoza Exhibition, on Saturday night, at the Colon Theatre, was a most important event, not only in an industrial point of view in connection with the gigantic advance of home industries, but more so owing to the reappearance, on the public platform, of one of the most distinguished of Argentine statesmen, Dr. Don Eduardo Costa, the Attorney-General of the Republic. It is not our intention to write a panegyric on Dr. Costa or to dwell at length on the rather monotonsous ceremony of a distribution of medals and honorary documents to the pioneers of our budding industries, but we cannot pass over in silence the Attorney-General's speech on the occasion. With all due regard for our industrial friends Schwarz, Miles, Marti, Zumboni, Bieckert, Hammer and many others whose efforts and manufactures we are the first to applaud and extol, we cannot shake off an overpowering conviction that there is a great deal of clap-trap about all this gold, silver, and bronze "medaling" and mutual admiration; and the large assemblage in Colon met to hear the talented Attorney's speech rather than to witness the ceremony of the distribution. Dr. Costa, in his steady endeavors to limit his interference in public affairs to the onerous duties of his high post, has signally failed to ostracise himself in his Horatian retreat and, nil he will he, has become today the magnetic pole to which the needle of public curiosity points. A speech from such a quarter, after twelve years of sphinx-like silence, was a novelty that filled every box and seat in the theatre.

Dr. Costa began by personal allusions to his retirement from the public stage and to the difficulties of handling a subject with which he was not familiar. Dwelling on his greater fitness to make a political speech, there was a thrill of curiosity and eagerness at the thought that he might, perhaps, allude to the brittle subject, but with diplomatic tact he launched into the progress of the mind, in the world at large, and then dropped into the industrial advance of the Argentine Republic.

Alluding to the Procustean operation going on in the world, with regard to production and the fall in prices, he pointed out the stationary stage, if not of the volume, at least so far the wealth of the country is concerned, of the value of our pastoral products. The great progress of the country must henceforward be based on local industries and on agriculture, both far more susceptible of immense development at present than the pastoral industry. He considered the day not distant when the value of the linseed crop of the republic would eclipse that of the wool clip, and herein all will agree with him, whatever doubts may be entertained as to the future of our export of wheat.

Pointing to the depression in prices of nearly all manufactures Dr. Costa stated that he believed the causes of this fall in prices to be permanent and that the decline would continue. By latest papers by the mail, we see that John Bright made the same remarks in a splendid speech in the beginning of October.

The learned Doctor finished his lengthy speech with some timely remarks on the increased means of production and subsistence, and, piercing into the future, believed that immense sources of power, at present wasted or lying in idleness, would be turned to account for the benefit of humanity. He then thanked the Committee of the Mendoza Exhibition for their kind invitation to join the ceremony, and sat down in the midst of deafening applause.

Dr. Morel, editor of our colleague La Nacion, made a Ciceronian speech in which he eloquently portrayed the character, virtues and hardships of a life at sea, and complimented Captain Vucassovich on his career as a sailor and on his successful efforts in the cause of seamen. Dr. Morel is a reflection of the province of his birth: his speech was like a garden of tropical plants and redolent with perfume. His correct diction and beautiful periods were applauded on many occasions, interrupting his speech.

THE FOREIGN CLUB.

On Saturday night last Madame Vigneau's old quarters in Calle Victoria, "redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled," were thrown open to the members of the oldest Club in South America as their now home. The place was literally ablaze with light from basement to roof, and the effect was most striking, especially in the lordly new dining room which, for size, tasteful decoration and magnificent furniture, surpasses far and away anything the other Clubs in town can boast of.

As the members streamed up the grand white marble staircase and entered the reading room, they were received by Mr. William H. Moores, President of the Club; Mr. A. Oostendorp, the Secretary, Mr. J. M. Larrazabal, Treasurer. Mr. J. M. Getting, and other members of the Committee. Congratulations poured on the President from all sides, and they were well deserved. The Foreign Club has now a mansion well worthy of the prominent position of its members in social and commercial life, and such a contrast in the way of air, light, surroundings, to the old ramshackle premises they have just left, that most of them already look twenty years younger, and in a month more we expect to see them all as rejuvenated as if they had made a six months' tour in Europe.

So far back as April last the architect's plans for the alterations and additional buildings were ready and the premises placed in the masons' hands; but that plague of this lovely country, "mañana," the weather, the "maestro's" delays, the iasolence of bricklayers, the whips and scorns of winter, and all the thousand ills that building's heir to so prolonged the work that a Doomsday feeling began to take possession of the 'socios,' till about three weeks ago, when the President, with characteristic North American energy, took the whole tribe of masons, painters, carpenters, upholsterers, decorators etc. in hands, infused life into them, named the 15th inst as the day for the new Club to open, unless the sky fell in the meantime, and, ably seconded by Messrs Oostendorp, Getting, Larrazabal, Arning and the Committee in general, carried out his programme to the letter, and opened the new premises on Saturday night, when all present were "called to the bar" and the Club's future prosperity was toasted in flowing bowls.

The new premises of the Foreign Club are so large and splendid that it would fill two or three columns to describe them in detail; but we will take such a glance at them as our space permits:

On ascending the fine staircase, with landing on a spacious corridor that runs almost the whole length of the frontage, the tasteful "al fresco" painting of the walls attracts attention. Two enormous mirrors on each side of the entrance to the series of reading rooms enable the members to have a good look at themselves as they ascend the stairs. All the doors of the rooms on the corridor, painted in imitations of grey satinwood, have glass panels with the monogram of the Club, surrounded with beautiful tracing, on each. Entering the principal reading room, the first thing that strikes the eye is the oil portrait of Mr. Duguid, the founder of the Club, which has always been hung in the place of honour in the different premises the Club has occupied from time to time. Two white marble chimney-pieces, each surmounted by large mirrors in gold frames, the grey and gold paper on the walls, the dark green upholstery, and carpet of greenish blue, give an air of refined comfort and even luxury to this room, and to the others, for foreign and illustrated papers, that flank it on each side. The library, the card room, (not much used, except for a rubber of the king of games now and then) the visitors' reception room, the visitors' dining room, and the writing room are all furnished, papered and carpeted in more or less the same style. In fact, with the best of taste, the three Gs—green, grey, and gold—are the prevailing colours throughout. Next the visitors' dining room is the bar to which so many were called on Saturday night. Here the paper is of more flowery hue, and a more or less roseate, mosaic oil cloth covers the floor. At the eastern end of the corridor are the billiard rooms, one 25 and the other 11 yards long. There are two English tables of the largest size, from Burroughs and Watts and Thurlow's of London; two French tables, and one American. The walls are painted white and green. Across the rear of the premises run the Committee and Manager's rooms, the 'archivo,' dressing rooms and lavatories, the latter atted with six of 'Shanks' Patent,' a basin in which it is really a genuine pleasure to have a wash.

Up we go now to the gem of the Club, the new dining room, 75 feet long, of dome-like loftiness, with a dozen doors and windows, and of luxurious coolness. Everything here is new, even to the plate and plates. At each end are two immense sideboards, with mirrors, of dark walnut; the chairs and tables are of the same wood, as also the frames of the splendid mirrors that surmount the fire places. Messrs Seng and Son of Calle Rivadavia designed and made this beautiful furniture, and it is certainly a most creditable sample of what can be done in the country in this line of trade. The three large chandeliers in this grand room are in every way in keeping with it. They are of bronze and gold, of beautiful design; and we must compliment the Gas Argentino Company's talented manager, Mr. Woodgate, on these lamps and the efficient lighting of the whole Club, of which he took charge. Of no less merit is the painting work throughout the whole Club. It is in the best taste and well done. The ceiling of the dining room is a work of high art in the blending and laying on of colour. Messrs. Toso of Calle San José, corner of Victoria, did all the painting, and it reflects the greatest credit on them.

Last, certainly not least, we must congratulate Mr. Moog, the well known architect, who planned all the alterations and additions. These have not been made without a considerable outlay of money; but the Committee have not hesitated to draw largely but judiciously on the ample funds of the Club, and the investment is in every way a good one when it has resulted in making the "local habitation" of the "Residentes Estrangeros" the first club-house in this city.

BARGOSSI AND BUCEPHALUS.

Great as was the apparent interest manifested in the contest between Bargossi and the horse at the Hippodrome on Sunday, the event resulted in the fiasco that was anticipated by many, although in truth the Italian did all he undertook, and won his race in the hollowest fashion. When one considers the stipulations of the race, however, the result could not be a matter of surprise, and we only wonder how it could have attracted the immense multitude of people that filled the stand, lined the rails and thronged the park; the trains and trams literally groaned under the human freights they carried homewards.

The race needs no description. On the fifteenth round, barely a third of the distance, the horse tired, although he had by that time gained three laps on Bargossi, and was withdrawn. Bargossi then completed the three laps he had lost, the half lap required to win, and came in as fresh as a "morning rose newly washed with—well, not dew."

Bargossi's time for the 15 rounds was 2 h. 13 m. 57 sec., and the horse's 1 h. 48 m. 45 s.

The whole affair was of the very tamest character when we consider that not a horse in the republic could compass the forty rounds without changing gait or stopping. Handicap a horse as much as may be considered equitable, but in the name of all that's patriotic or athletic where's the sporting justice or humour of setting a horse to do a moral impossibility. Bargossi's performance, no matter from what point of view, is indeed a very poor one when either George or Cumming (and sporting calendars only know how many more) can give him almost half an hour in ten miles, and there are bycicliats (we believe Bargossi also challenges the bycicle) who will run him any distance without alighting from, or stopping the machine. Until Bargossi, therefore, can put forward a fair sporting record of some description we think it savours of a development of "cheek" to advertise such an exhibition as we saw on Sunday.

If Bargossi's forte is a long "spin" why has he never entered in any of the great "go-as-you-pleases" in America or England? but it would seem his only forte, as far as we can see, is to make a race to suit himself, stipulate all the conditions and arrangements himself, and win as he pleases. There is indeed very little of the glorious kudos about this, no matter what the substantial benefit may be.

Mrs Bargossi's style of progression is, to put it mildly, not that essence of grace with which ladies are supposed to invest their many charms. Still 3500 metres in less than 18 minutes, by a lady, cannot be considered a bad performance, and is perhaps a best on record, for all that we know to the contrary notwithstanding.

If, to conclude, therefore Bargossi is desirous of showing the stuff of which a Garibaldi is made, we would direct his attention to an open, straightforward challenge published in our columns on Sunday and of which he can have particulars by applying at this office.

J. L. M.

The following communications would seem to bear out our reporter's opinion as to Bargossi's prowess:—

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

Perhaps the following may be of interest to the readers of the "Table."

Bargossi last Sunday ran 17,500 metres in 85 min. 18 sec: Cumming, the English champion in his race last September with George, ran 10 miles (16,093 metres) in 51 min. 6 3/5 sec.—55 min. 36 sec for the 17,500 metres covered by the Italian.

Yours truly

Starter.

THE GREAT FOOT RACE

The ten mile race between George and Cummings was decided on Monday afternoon at Lille Bridge, London. The race proved in one sense a disappointment, as Cummings took the lead in the sixth lap and won easily by over four hundred yards. He ran magnificently, and completed the distance in 51 mins. 6 3-5 sec. This beats by 13 2 5 sec. the previous best record for 10 miles (51 20 sec.,) accomplished by George at Stamford Bridge in the April of last year. Cummings's performance was a magnificent one; what made it so especially remarkable being the fact that the first mile occupied over 5 mins. 21 sec. Had he been pressed, it is certain he could have done still better, and it would be impossible to say too much in his favour. George was clearly not at his best, his time for the full distance being 57 sec. behind his record. Even had he been up to his highest standard, in face of Cummings's time, he could not have possibly won, but he would certainly have made a much better fight.

GALVESTON.

The following particulars about Galveston will be read with interest, as late telegrams announce that the whole town nearly has been burnt to the ground:—

Galveston, the capital of the county, a port of entry, and the principal city of Texas, is situated at the N. E. extremity of Galveston island, and at the mouth of the bay of the same name, the entrance to which is by a narrow channel between the city and the S. W. point of the long peninsula of Bolivar; lat. 29° 18' 11" N., long. 94° 48' W. The island is about 28 m. long and from 1½ to 3½ m. wide, intersected by many small bayous, diversified by several fresh water ponds, and bordered through its whole length by a smooth hard beach, which forms a pleasant drive and promenade. The bay is an irregular indentation, branching out into various arms, and receiving Trinity and San Jacinto rivers and Buffalo bayou. It extends 35 m. N. from the city to the mouth of Trinity river, and has a breadth of from 12 to 18 m. The harbor is the best in the state, and has 12 feet of water over the bar at low tide. There are several ship-building and repairing yards, good wharves, and large store-houses adjoining them. Nearly all the foreign trade of the state is transacted here. The city has several foundries and machine shops, cotton presses, hotels, &c. Episcopal church and the Roman Catholic cathedral, are costly brick buildings in the Gothic style The Roman Catholic university of St. Mary is a large brick structure at the E. end of the city; it was founded in 1854, incorporated with power to confer degrees in 1856, and is under the charge of the order of Minor Conventuals.—The island of Galveston was occupied by the notorious pirate Lafitte in 1817, and continued to be his headquarters until his settlement was broken up by Lieut. Kearney, commander of the U.S. brig Enterprise, in 1821. The growth of the city dates from 1837.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Nov. 13th.

If we accept Walker's definition of the word "anomaly," as irregularity, deviation from rule, then we have more anomalies in the Argentine Republic than in any other country I know of. In all phases and conditions of our society, from the heights of the Governing region down through all the strata of our social classes, there exists a continual propensity to irregularities and deviations from rule. The very political organization of the country is an anomaly—fourteen independent states with irresponsible governments, bound together by a Constitution that, as O'Connell used to say, referring to an Act of Parliament, a coach and six could be driven through; or using a more appropriate simile, a gaucho could drive a 'tropilla' of 'potros' through. But the strangest thing of all is, that the country appears to thrive on irregularities. Never was such a stupendous anomaly known as the Provincial Bank of Buenos Aires, whose emision went down in the space of thirty years from par to 96 per cent discount, and yet with depreciated paper, Buenos Aires became rich and prosperous, and was able to dominate all the rest of the Republic. As Mithridates was said to have thriven on poisons, so we in Argentina thrive on anomalies. One would have thought that the National Government, finding itself on the brink of bankruptcy, after being en obliged to decree 'Curso Forzoso,' would naturally seize hold of the plank of salvation presented them by the sale of the National lines of railway, or by cutting down an unnecessarily extravagant budget; but no, deviation from rule, or in more comprehensive language, deviation from common sense, carried the day as usual, and not only was the credit of the country brought to disgraceful grief in Europe, but the intensity of the bad effects of 'Curso Forzoso,' augmented by a new emission of inconvertible shinplasters. Argentine credit is tarnished in Europe; our Government at home is living from hand to mouth, notwithstanding an income of one-half more than Canada; 'Curso Forzoso' is making life unbearable to nine-tenths of the community; gold speculators daily place in jeopardy the capitals of commerce, and yet the actual progress of the country is astounding. Wealth appears to spring out of the ground; lands advancing everywhere in value; foreign and domestic commerce increasing every day, and the National Industry of making delicious wines out of rotten raisins and Tucuman caña, is reaching such a point of development, that we shall soon be independent of France, Spain, and Portugal.

The anomalies in this province are still more phenomenal. A Government at the head of which is a bed-ridden priest, with no administrative abilities of any description; a Legislative Chamber, the members of which have barely mastered the three Rs; a revenue, equal, relatively to population, to half of that of the Federal Government, and the expenditure of which in its greater part, is unaccounted for; very heavy taxes; a wretched administration of justice; the lower native orders steeped in ignorance and superstition; and yet the Province is advancing in prosperity, commerce and wealth quite ahead of Canada. Although all these assertions are palpably contradictory, they are nevertheless absolute facts. 'Curso Forzoso' presses terribly hard on us; a system of no government paralyses political progress, but Rosario is going ahead as rapidly as any town in the United States. Incomprehensible anomaly!

Our friends, the Messrs Day Brothers, are also putting their shoulders to the wheel of progress. The Northern part of our town, on which is situated the Central Argentine Station, is essentially the English 'barrio,' comprising a space of thirty to forty squares. In it are built Mr Fisher's fine mansion, the handsome residences of Messrs Graham, Boardman, Talbot, Martin, etc., and Soler's Row, mostly occupied by English and Germans, and all the houses, large and small, of the numerous employees of the railway, to which will soon be added those of the Buenos Aires and Rosario Railway. The beautiful Anglican Church and the Methodist Chapel, are also in the section, which is being rapidly built upon. The Messrs Day came to the conclusion that so many English people ought to have an easy access to the nice drugs, pills or tinctures etc. they are already celebrated for, and have established a branch of their druggery at the corner of Tucuman and Entre Rios, sparing no expense in making it, certainly the handsomest Dispensary in town. To this they have added a marble fountain which produces all kinds of mineral waters, respecting drinks, soda preparations etc. This is something quite new here. Outside they have placed, on an iron column, a huge transparent pestle, studded with large diamonds, rubbish and emeralds, or something very like them, which makes quite an 'Arabian Nights' display, when lighted with gas. Altogether, Messrs Day's Dispensary is a credit to the English 'barrio,' and I think it will be a success, for after bread, humanity as a rule, must have physic. On Sunday evening Messrs Day's "Botica" was opened with great eclat.

Dr Irigoyen is busy in Santa Fé, in the difficult task of allaying the angry passions of his partizans. He will have found out by this time the character of the inhabitants of Sleepy Hollow, and his own inherent amiability is scarcely proof against the pig-headedness of these wonderful people, who, believing they are the salt of the province, scorn all advice from outside. Both the candidates for the governorship are Irigoyenistas, and both seek Dr Irigoyen's support, who is consequently placed in an awkward dilemma. If he elects to support Galvez, then Iriondo and his party will go over to Juarez Celman, and if he support Iriondo, he loses the strong contingent of Galvez, who is sustained tooth and nail by the Gentle Cura. Under these circumstances, Dr Irigoyen's policy is to persuade the two candidates to retire in favour of a 'troisieme de circonstance.' Up to the present both refuse; so Dr Irigoyen's "suaviter in modo," is sorely tried.

The Messrs Hume are the kind of contractors we want in this country. They do not allow the grass to grow under their feet. The rapidity with which they are carrying on the provincial network of narrow guage, must take the breath out of the denizens of Sleepy Hollow. On one side the line is speeding up North; on another it is travelling South to San Carlos; another branch to Coronda, and yet another from the old port of Santa Fé to Colastiné, on the broad Parana; broad indeed! for at this point it is about ten miles wide. Messrs Hume intend inaugurating the finished line to San Carlos on the 1st January next.

W. P.

Mr Chiquito de Eibar thrashed all his competitors on Sunday in the Euskara ball alley There was a crowd of milkmen present; but they were not so numerous or enthusiastic on occasions.

LATEST FROM CHUBUT.

If we have been somewhat silent lately, do not let your readers suppose that we are dead or dormant. Opportunities to write are few. We have been eleven weeks without post, and, besides, we are very busy sowing and irrigating, and hope to continue so for a couple of months.

The Spring freshet has come quite strong, so that the greatest grumbler is obliged to smile on the old river another season.

But this sowing will not be so extensive as last year's. Some people have said "Good-bye to Chubut," others are out exploring, and others have been occupied in the threshing and export of last crop, etc. These parties curtailed the list of ploughmen and all branches of farm labourers. Many that are sowing do so on a large scale comparatively, and at this day the wheat lands look well.

During the last month or two the Government surveyor was planning our capital of Chubut—Trerawson, Plaza and a full complement of Government offices with several of the surrounding streets and boulevards at present taken and planned for private houses. At present several parties are making brick contracts for buildings on newly-taken lots. The brick-making business promises to be good for this season, and there is a wide field for bricklayers, carpenters, plasterers, floorers and roofers. We do not expect our "city" to grow at such a mushroom speed as La Plata, but it will be more solid and less inflammable.

On the 14th October Governor Fontana left Trerawson on his way to the Andes. The expedition had appointed the farthest west "potrero" for a "rendezvouz" on Saturday October 17—about 50 miles from here—to finish preparations, and give the turkseads, rings, buttons, etc., to "lassos" and "bosals."

They had three rounds of target-shooting, which gave very satisfactory results. One wiry Welshman hit the eye thrice; two "hijos del pais" lowest of all, unfortunately.

On Sunday the Rev. Hugh Davies held afternoon service and preached from Heb. xi. 1—"Faith is the foundation of our hopes," etc.

On Monday a grand concourse of brothers and sisters and sweethearts went up to bid the members of the expedition "good bye!" and there was considerable smiling and weeping when the caravan moved along the river bank, wound by an overhanging cliff, and was gone.

THE REGATTA.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

In perusing your reporter's remarks on Wednesday's Regatta I think a special mention should have been made of Mr J. Th. van Houten, who proved to be, either as stroke in a four-oar, or as sculler for the Bridgett Challenge Cup, so prominent an oars man as any Club of the world could boast of.

In the Montevideo race Mr. van Houten showed evidently the superiority of the good old style, a long strong pull and long sliding, over the perhaps more modern, short pulling of the Montevideo crew.

In the Parry Cup, with so formidable competitors as the Polo Club mustered, headed by a stroke like Mr. W. Ford, he brought his men, weakened already by a previous race, to the front in grand slashing style, and displayed later on with his crew in the final heat most admirable energy and pu[illegible].

The sculling championship was won by as splendid rowing and with so much ease, that it called out a loud applause.

Very seldom an amateur will be able to record having rowed and won four races in one single day.

It is really a pity the B. A. R. Club which counts so many prominent oarsmen, should not order from Europe some modern raceskiffs, we might then perhaps see "times" that will favorably compare with European records.

Amateur.

THE DEVONS.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

As much interest is now being taken in the selection of English breeds for crossing with our native cattle, it may be worth while to draw the attention of our estancieros to the following facts, contrasting the Hereford with the Devon cattle in their disposition to fatten quickly, and very few English breeds rival the latter in this quality.

Mr. Carpenter, a very intelligent farmer, informs us that the Duke of Bedford had some prime Hereford cattle sent to his estate in the month of April, and he ordered some Devons also to be bought in the Crediton Market at the latter end of the same month. The Devons were not in such good condition as the Herefords when they were put to grass, and cost about £5 per head less than the Herefords; but at the end of December, when they were sold to the butcher, the Devons were superior in fatness and weight.

A more satisfactory experiment was made by the same nobleman. Six oxen were selected on the 16th of November and fed until the 10th of December in the following year, the results were as follows (the condition of the experiments were equal):—

		Cwt.	Qrs.	lbs.
1st Hereford gained		1	2	27
2nd do	"	2	3	[illegible]
3rd Devon	"	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
4th do	"	[illegible]	[illegible]	25
5th Sc[illegible]	"	[illegible]	1	00
[illegible]x	"	4	2	14
[illegible]h Leicester	"	3	1	00
	"	2	3	14

All breeds have a place—the Shorthorns, Herefords, Devons, Galloways and polled Angus for beef, but where an animal is required that can best bear the changes of climate and soil, thrive where many of the other breed would starve, then there is no doubt that the Devon stands at the head of the list, and is apt to be forgotten with the "boom" for Herefords that is now taking place.

I remain

Yours truly,

Grazier.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The inscription of voters on Sunday came off quietly, but the interest in the matter is shrinking rapidly and the attendance at the churches shows a great falling off. The following are the results:—

The political news from Cordoba is most melancholy. All the head men of one of the opposition parties have been clapped into jail, and there they will remain until they produce the cash to pay the fine for holding meetings before notifying the police. It is a case of five hundred dollars fine meetings.

The Palermo meeting of the Gun Club on Sunday was crowded, and the prizes was well contested. Mr. Carlos P Rodriguez, carried off the first prize, a large statue, against the following competitors:—

Antonio Isla Penrose, Bridgett, Mackinlay, Gifford, Cheek, Kruls, G y L Casey, C Ballesteros, R Garcia, Cayrol, Larguier, Laberne, Stuart, Cazaban, Bergmans, C P Rodriguez, Pedro Acebal, E Banon, C Hoevel, Hansen, J A Kinnibil, T Banon, Carlos Rosenthal, A Alfano, N Reppetto, R Luro, Schiappacasse, A Canale, Grignetti, Zozzi, Billinghurst, M Dumais, José Luro, Salaverry, Emilio Casares, S Boucau, Juan Correa Morales, S Costa, S Duhalde, A Kratzenstien, P Harp, C Ponce, A Gerding.

The double prize, consisting of a fine bronze clock, with barometer and thermometer, was carried off by Mr. J Correa Morales. The gathering was much larger than usual, and the shooting was up to the mark.

The police have arrested two young men, known in society, for ill-treating and beating their mother. It appears that both had run through their late brother's fortune and unable to persuade their mother to hand over to them her part in the property, they attacked her, dragged her through the house and would have possibly murdered her, but for the interference of the police.

Awful news from Tucuman! A meeting is on the 'tapis' in that sugar city, to request the Government to make a clean sweep of the Municipality, from the Lord Mayor down to the 'basurero,' on the plea that they are a public nuisance.

Mr. Paul Groussac is preparing a second edition of his novel Fruto Vedado in French for the French public.

Dr. Rocha has returned from La Plata after a protracted stay of ten days. He intends returning to the provincial capital with his family where he will reside during the summer months.

The fire at Galveston appears to have been "big" enough even for Uncle Sam's wealth[illegible] to [illegible] for [illegible] things. Forty 'manzanas' ended in smoke. Loss only a little over a million hard dollars. Forty 'manzanas' in Buenos Aires would be worth ten times the money. Galveston must be a one-horse place. What says Mr Consul Bridgett?

The storm on Saturday appears to have done more harm in the Mount than here, where, in spite of the floods at the Boca, there has been very little wailing or gnashing of teeth; and lots of people who were within measurable distance of being drowned out on Saturday, put on their best toggery, and went to see Bargossi run on Sunday.

Talking of Bargossi. All the rabble in town went to see him run, and the Zoophiles must have wept to see the overcrowded tram cars. Bargossi beat the horse, after 21 miles had been covered, and looked as fresh as a daisy, or rather a bunch of daisies. We are told that the whole secret of this wonderful runner's success is that he has no gall, and might, consequently, run from this to the Last Day, without feeling fatigued. Natural phenomena of this nature are very rare.

Everybody is more or less sick or out of sorts, owing the violent changes in the weather. To our mind, Sunday was a delightful day, pleasant and cool, like a certain garment our distinguished countryman Brian O'Lynn used to wear.

Theodora was given at the Politeama on Saturday and Sunday night; that is to say, it took two nights to produce this most monstrously long play, half on each night. Only a Frenchman or an Argentine would dream of sitting out such a play. In Rio they gave it all in one night, and it lasted from 7 p.m. till daylight next day. The critics are copying columns about the play from European papers, and say that the "mise en scene" and dresses at the Politeama are not up to the mark. It is the most absurd affectation and nonsense to expect such [illegible] and they are in Lo[illegible] things here as D[illegible]don and Paris.

Dr. Costa, the Fiscal, and Dr. Bunge, the Judge, are at variance about the recent horrid Minotaur case. Dr. C. considers the accused innocent, and Dr. B. says he is a shocking old villain (he is 70). We're greatly afraid that the s.o.v. theory is the right one.

The water-in-the- ewers question is assuming a very queer look. Ink is being shed in buckets-full; but it seems impossible to get anyone concerned to stand up in a good pair of boots, and tell the public how the water got into a sewer presumed to be water-tight.

More ferocious blundering with the poor immigrants, 422 of whom were packed off to the Interior the other day without their luggage. On day it is nothing to eat; another day nothing to wear, and so on. What has knocked the Im. Dep. out of joint all of a sudden?

Seven new Aldermen were issued by the National Government on Sunday. We salute them all with effusion, as they are all well and favourably known to half the public. Their names are E Basabi.baso, E Castex, J Zuviria, G Soler, J Sanchez, E Pellegrini and J Ledesma.

Captain Vucassovich was the hero of the Centro Industrial dinner at the Colon Theatre on Saturday night. The Centro gave him a gold medal, and the Gymnastic Club a gold wreath for his great bravery at sea. He had to face torrents of eloquence in his own praise, and we bet the fine fellow would far sooner have face l a "snorter" in the Bay of Biscay.

The revision of gas metres, which took such a world of fuss to establis., appears to be rather a miserable source of revenue to the Municipality. In October 225 metres were revised, but they only turned in something over 1000 Nats.

The Prensa has slain the San José Lottery. The Buenos Ayres Government has knocked it on the head; but, no doubt, our Brazilian, Chilian and Peruvian friends will still think "It's better trust and be deceived etc." We really do not pity them.

There is woe far and wide in the camp at the loss of the flax crop. We see that one high authority recommends the farmers to cut the crop before it is quite ripe, and they will have a chance of saving some of it.

The Lottery for the Irish Orphanage will be drawn on Christmas Eve, the same day as the 100,000 Nats Capital Lottery.

A show of microbes and other queer things will shortly be opened in the "altos" of the Colon Theatre. We predict that the showman wont make a too enormous fortune.

A boy of 19 shot himself dead at San Nicolas the other day. Five minutes before the dreadful act he was talking and joking with his mother.

Monsieur Thibaud will give another concert to-morrow night. He has the most wonderful execution of any player ever heard here, but the musical journals pull him up for the outrageous pace at which he rattles over the keys, and blurs everything he plays.

The Po'iorama in Plaza San Martin was injured by the gale last week, and will not reopen till Thursday. It is well worth a visit, as it is a marvel of art.

To-day's Royal Mail steamer is the Christmas Card boat for home. Don't forget.

We saw the sweeping machine at work on Sunday. They are a great improvement on the two-armed human machine, but appear to have some kind of a squint in the left wheel which makes a passer-by feel as if they were about to run over his boots and then beg his pardon. Will no Alderman in the Consejo D. stand up and propose that half a dozen water-cart drivers should be flayed alive in the Plaza as a warning to their fellows not to drench the boots and pantaloons of the public as well as the streets. The feelings of a man, or even a boy, when so drenched, are more easily imagined than described.

We have often heard of the taming of a shrew, and therefore feel bound in justice to call the attention of ladies to a very amusing chapter on bear, or rather husband (too often the same thing) taming in the yesterday Patria.

Is there no boot or brogue man in town with spirit enough to import some of the new paper boots lately patented in England? We hear they are as cheap as dirt and far stronger than leather. Above all they are as soft as butter, and do not hurt one's corns.

For the future Mr Arana, the eminent and truly indefatigable City Chemist, will examine all the Sheepwash sold in town as well as the wines in doubtful grocery establishments. As they say that there is very little difference between the two liquids in question.

The Zoophiles caught a brutal puestero in the La Plata market in the act of plucking a fowl alive the other day. They immediately introduced him to a "blue;" but he begged so hard to be pardoned for 'this once' that the tender hearts of the "Zoos" were melted, and the fellow lives to pluck another day.

"Can I see the mayor?" inquired a member of the city council of the formers servant. "Not at present; he's at dinner." "But my business is very important." "I cannot help it, sir; his honour is at steak"

"Can't you give us some war reminiscences?" asked a citizen of an old fellow in a party of ex-soldiers telling stories. "No, I believe not," he answered promptly; "you see I've only been married six months."

Who wants to buy a gunboat? The Tactique (T R) is to be sold by auction at the Mount. She is over 400 tons, with miserable engines of 50 horse power, and two formidable (for the men firing them) guns.

Advices from Bahia Blanca report considerable opposition there to the granting of the concession lately asked, to start a factory for making salt from sea water. It turns out that there are 600 squares of what will soon be available land in question as well as the salt.

Great Auction

OF

25 lots of Ground

In Barracas al Norte

Close to the Sola Works of the Southern Railway.

Divided by the following streets:—California, Santa Magdalena Del Horno, and Presidente, this last one of 30 yards wide. Fronting the Glass Fabric, and just a stone throw from the Work Shops of the Railway where thousands of men are constantly at work, and who are in want of small houses for their families.

On Sunday the 15th inst.

At 3 p.m.

We commence the only Great Auction of the Season. Lots of all sizes as will be seen by the plan, which can be obtained at our office or on the grounds the day of the sale. No price is fixed to the ground, therefore everybody can obtain a piece at the lowest possible price.

English workmen and persons with small capital should take special notice of this sale as no other opportunity will offer itself for a long time, and as ground rizes in value so quickly that a delay of two months in buying indicates a loss of 50 per cent.

After this auction we will sell three lots in Calle Sola, between California and Presidente, at whatever price is offered.

For more details and other information apply to Baizan's office, Victoria 31, altos.

Important Notice.

I hereby advise the public that I have established a Gymnasium Institute at Calle Florida 406 where I also apply the MASSAGE SYSTEM as studied and practiced at Dr. KELLGREN'S well known institute in London.

This system has given the most surprising results in curing chest and lung complaints, and all maladies caused by the kidneys and joints, and in any way connected with the nervous system. Thus the celebrated SYSTEM of MASSAGE is recommended as a certain cure for rheumatism, asthma, undeveloped muscles, paralysis, disorders in the digestion and in the circulation of the blood, etc., etc.

I have also a special class for the development of the body and muscles.

The following is the time-table I have arranged for the application of the Massage System at their own residences.

For Gentlemen 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

For Ladies 12½ to 2 p.m.

Consultation hours—11.30 a.m. to 12.30.

Patients can also make arrangements for the application of the Massage System at their own residences.

Dysentery, Cholera Fever, Ague Coughs, Colds, &c.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensive.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœe, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemist, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan-5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 22, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne or the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

ON 'CHANGE.

	Nov. 16th.
Gold	48.50 o/o prem.
Cedulas G	83⅜

The week has opened with a very strong gold market, owing to the nervousness caused by the news from Europe of declaration of war by Servia against Bulgaria. Were it not for this gold would have fallen, owing to the large supply each; 248,521 sold cash, opening at 148.50, rising to 149, and closing at 148.50. For the end of the month there was a decided push to secure gold. Prices began at 147 and closed at 148. Amount sold, 265,000; for Dec. 31st 175,000 at 146. Total gold sales, 736,521.

Cedulas ruled a shade better, yet 184,000 Series G were thrown on the market. Prices were well maintained at 83⅜ ¾. National Bank shares, 400 sold at 141½-142.

Exchange looks upward, and more London and Brazilian Bank exchange from Montevideo is offering in the market at 47½. In frances, bills offering from 4.99 to 5.05. Some of the banks have taken a large amount in frances.

The saladeristas in the Uruguay on the Banda Oriental side begin working to morrow, and already some troops of cattle have arrived.

Telegrams this morning from London give all stocks down on the Stock Exchange; still some of the first houses here have not received any message about the war, which makes many think that there is no alarm in Europe about the Servian struggle.

We see by Patagonian papers that Lieut. Col. Fernandez Oro and family arrived at Patagones in the Pomona. The gallant Commander has some valuable properties in that territory. He takes the important post at the head of the Commissariat Department of the Second Division of the army.

A wool buyer has turned up at Bahia Blanca and all the sheepfarmers are waking the "rara avis." If the "artista" were wide awake they would ship wools by Bahia Blanca. The day is not distant when all the wool south of the Samborombom will go in that direction.

Mr. J Bell was welcomed to-day on his arrival from Loreto. He states that all the farmers in that district and Venado Tuerto are at present shearing and that the wool is much better than last season. Both sheep and cattle are fattening rapidly, but rain is much wanted. It has been threatening to rain for the last week, but not a drop has fallen between Pergamino and Loreto up to the present. On Friday all expected rain down in buckets, as it was blowing heavily and thunder and lightning threatened a storm, but the downpour disappointed all as it only lasted a few seconds.

Mr. Casey sold the following wools:—

1500 ar. at 95, Taray

500 ar. at 94, Suipacha

1000 ar. at 85, Las Heras

1500 ar. at 92, Curumalan.

At the North market 100,000 ar. wool in, and at the South market about 70,000 ar.

Wools coming in very fast, and only the best of easy sale.

Mr A G Evans, locomotive superintendent of the Southern Railway, leaves in the Royal Mail La Plata to-day with family. We hope to see him soon back again.

The news of the declaration of war by Servia against Bulgaria was known on 'Change on Saturday evening, and to some slight extent affected the market. We hold for to-morrow some explanations respecting the conflicting interests that produced the present struggle. It would seem that Austtria is behind Servia in the struggle.

The National Government has at last filled up the vacancies in the Municipal Board. Mr. Ledesma, who is one of the new Board, was also member of the Municipal Board in 1882, and a very excellent and active member he proved. Since then he has been sojourning in Europe, so that he brings to his post now fresh European experiences in the greatest cities of the world.

Dr. Requena, of Montevideo, who has so long resided in this city, has left for Rosario, and from thence goes to Santiago, where he is about to put up a sugar-mill.

We note with much pleasure that a telegram from Rosario states that Mr. Clarke, the manager of the Campana Railway, is in treaty with Mr. Casado for the purchase of his railway, station, etc. This would be a bold and splendid stroke of the Buenos Aires and Rosario Railway, to buy up Casado's railway and continue it to Rosetillon, as it would remove the possibility of competition, and the Rosario and Campana Railway would then hold the only communication by rail between Buenos Aires and Rosario.

Mr. Mackern of Rosario was welcomed on 'Change; he reports business very brisk there.

The Dalton's mail's come up to-night from Montevideo.

Merchants complain of the outrageous mistakes in the Bolsa telegrams which give the market price of tallow in Havre at 71½, when the real quotation is 64, which is indeed a difference.

The auction sale of the great city property known as "Moore's corner" one of the finest sites in the city, attracted great attention amongst all the city capitalists, and the choker little patio, where the sale was held, was crowded to overflowing with millionaires and their brokers. The property is at the South-east corner of Calles Reconquista and Piedad fronting the London and River Plate Bank, and the Carabasa Bank and the largest site belonging to the National Bank, and within half a square of the Bolsa. It measured in varas 18 on Calle Piedad and 47 on Reconquista, and, as the building is in ruins and must be pulled down, the site is what commanded the real value. The property was purchased some 18 years ago by the late Terence Moore from Mr Payredon for the liquidation of accounts of long standing between them, and the price paid was 3,800,000 m/c. The late Mr Moore informed us last year that he refused several offers, and that as the new Bolsa was then being erected he would not sell it; some few months after he fell sick and died, and the sale now was by order of the judge to close the testamentaria. The auction began at ½ past 3, and the bidding was so spirited that it closed in fifteen minutes. The bidding was as follows:—

First bid— 130,000 m/n

and then bid followed bid, advancing the price each bid for 5,000 m/n, until reaching 195,000 m/n when there was a pause; next bid was only 1,000 m/n, and then bids of 1,000 m/n followed until reaching 212,000 m/n when a bid for 215,000 m/n was made followed by one for 216,000 m/n, at which price the property was knocked down to Messrs. Samuel B. Hale & Co., who were much felicitated on their magnificent purchase, the price paid giving about 255 m/n per square vara, the property measuring 816 square varas. In the opinion of some of the most experienced real estate brokers the property was sold cheap, and Messrs. Hale & Co. have secured a great bargain. After the sale Messrs. Hale & Co. received an offer of 25,000 m/n premium for the "boleto", which was peremptorily declined. We understand that Messrs. Hale & Co. purpose erecting a magnificent building on the site, different from anything in this city, and on the style of some of the magnificent edifices in N. York, at a cost of 250,000 nacionales.

Mr. Goodhall took leave of his numerous friends on 'Change and starts in the La Plata to-morrow. We all wish him a pleasant voyage, and hope he will soon return where he has such a host of friends in the first business circles of this city.

Owing to the terrible state of the Rio Negro bar, the Platense steamer is still in the Rio Negro. If the late South-Easter was felt down there, the bar will continue rough for a week. Owing to this delay, the Pomona will not be able to effect her intermediate trip to Bahia Blanca.

The Arana quinta in Flores, six squares from the Flores Road, with a front of 50 ms. by 50 deep, for 6,900 m/n. Buyer, Mr. Labougle

A landsite in Calle Lavalle, between Junin and Andes, measuring 10 yards front by 62½ deep, for 3,500 m/n. Buyer, Mr. Theophilus Mendez.

House Calle Victoria No. 1246, for 7,300 m/n. Buyer, Mr. Kalko.

House in Calle Estados Unidos No. 273, for 10,500 m/n Buyer, Mr. E. Hansen.

Houses in the same street from No. 267 to 271, for 22,000 m/n. Buyer, Mr. Oscamu.

A property in Calle Chile, between Paseo and Pichincha, measuring 36 yards front by 40 deep, for 8,000 m/n. Buyer, Mr. Franconi

Eight land sites, corner of Callao and Cordoba, comprising an aggregate frontage of 100 yards by 35 depth, for 8,000 m/n.

A house in Belgrano, in Calle General Paz, between Moreno and Castelli, for 8,500 m/n.

Property, Calle Independencia No. 610, for 8,000 m/n. Buyer, Mr M. Silva.

The Dalton comes up to-night and goes up to Rosario and Parana. Large cargo of railway materials.

The Nasmyth leaves on Wednesday for Liverpool direct. Full cargo.

The Orion sails on the 22nd for Antwerp and London.

The Caxton leaves on Wednesday for Rosario and Boca, Santa Fe, with railway materials.

At afterhours the gold market ruled very hot and excited; some few purchases for to-morrow were done at 150, and for end of month at 149, but afterwards prices receded. Those who bought in the morning sold out in the evening at a profit, and prices dropped, closing at 148½ and not much doing.

The Pagaré Committee received on Saturday night the following telegram:—

"War declared between Servia and Bulgaria. Stock and share market depressed, owing to fears of further complications."

Nearly all the principal houses received telegrams from Europe to-day, but there was nothing special in them about the war.

Latest advices from Montevideo give the following:—

Dr. Victorica, Argentine Minister here, is at present engaged in arranging an agreement between the two Governments about the Custom House laws. The object of this agreement is to put an end to smuggling, which has lately assumed very large proportions, particularly along the coast. He has had several interviews with the Ministers of Finance and Foreign Affairs. Very shortly a project will be laid before the Chambers.

Owing to the severe gale raging on Saturday here no vessels were able to enter. Shortly after the storm broke out, the Argentine brig Ligero broke her moorings and shortly after ran ashore near the Central Uruguay Station. The first vessel she came in contact with on her road to destruction was Lord Dudley's yacht Marchesa, striking her on the stern and causing considerable damage. Before getting clear seven of the crew managed to get aboard of the Marchesa, leaving only one behind who was shortly afterwards saved by Major Robinson with a boat from the Capitania. The next vessel in her passage was the steamer Fé, which saved herself by hoisting sail, her fires being out; then she ran against the steam launch of the Nipsic, and finished before going ashore by carrying away one of the boats belonging to an English gunboat. The stairs of the passenger mole has been knocked into smithereens, and all the barracas along the coast have suffered more or less. The quintas have also come in for their share of damage, and there will be very little fruit this year.

Saladeros.	Head.
J Paulet, Son	3,051
Conforte, Parma & Mouret	..
Piñeyrua	2,836

Arrivillaga & Sons	395
Apesteguy & Sosa	12
Autarquin & Co.	..

P Denis & Co.	521

Total,	6.815 head.
Same period in 1884	3,017 head.

The monthly balance-sheet of the Provincial Bank, which we give at foot, has fairly astonished the whole market. The Bank has reduced its circulation to 21½ millions, which shows that some 5 millions have been withdrawn from circulation, and at the very busiest time of the year, which in the opinion of some of the bankers and brokers and merchants would have been much more felt in the market, but for the corresponding issue of Cedulas, which to a certain extent replaces the Provincial Bank note. We, for our part find it difficult to understand, how the newly issued Cedulas replace the Provincial Bank paper money withdrawn from circulation, but many insist that so it is, and furthermore that if the Mortgage Bank continues issuing new Series of Cedulas the Provincial Bank will be able to reduce its circulation to a limit that will abolish it to convert its notes, and this get rid of the provisions of the curso forzoso law and the National Interventor. But the whole market protests against any further issue of Cedulas, and a very excellent article in yesterday's Prensa on this subject has attracted great notice in banking and commercial circles; we fully agree with our talented colleague, and we may here state that one of the most experienced members of the Board of Directors of the Banco Hipotecario is also opposed to the issue of any fresh Series. Dr. Pacheco, Minister of Hacienda, we hear, takes the same view of the matter, and will probably bring his influence to bear on the Bank to stop any further emission for a year or so.

Several gentlemen belonging to the Madero port scheme staff leave to-morrow in the mail. Mr. Kendall and family also returns, and Mr. Goodnall, Presidente of the American Bank Note Co, also leaves for New York. We wish them all a most pleasant trip and hope to see them all back again next year in the R. Plate.

As will appear by the following, the London Banks are about to close at 1 o'clock on Saturday. Pity 'tis that we cannot establish the same sole here:

"We understand that the result so far of the agitation for closing the London banks at one o'clock on Saturday is that out of 7,749 circulars which were sent out 1,951 reply cards have been returned. This leaves 768 firms who are apparently indifferent on the subject, and of the rest there are but 270 objectors, against 1,559 who approve of the scheme. There are also 122 who write proposing two o'clock as the closing hour. The promoters of the movement are, we understand, very well satisfied with the reception their proposals have met with. Their success, of course, depends a good deal on the composition of the minority of 768 firms in the one case and that of the 122 in the other; for if these totals comprise all the large firms and those who agree with the scheme the small ones, the boon sought for would, we fear, be as far off as ever."
